

DEVOTED TO DO WHAT IS GOOD

Titus 3:1-15

Key verse: 8

Discussion questions:

- How can we figure out what is good?
- In what ways can we exercise God's goodness?

Inductive study questions:

1. How can we be good citizens? What does "to be ready" imply? What kind of attitude must we have with everyone? (1-2)
2. What kind of life did we used to live? (3) What wonderful things has God done in our lives? How is the Holy Spirit involved? (4-6) What hope do we have? (7) What should be our life direction after receiving God's grace? (8)
3. Why does Paul say to avoid conflicts? (9) What kind of controversies can we encounter today? What should we do with a person who is engrossed in such things and why? (10-11)
4. What request does Paul make? (12-13, 15) Why does he reiterate that we ought to do good? (14)
